A young man and woman are outdoors in a grassy field. The woman, in the foreground, wears a bright green t-shirt and is holding a small glass jar with a red lid. She is looking down at the jar. The man, behind her, wears a white t-shirt and a green baseball cap, and is smiling at the camera. In the background, there are trees and a triangular road sign with a blue arrow pointing right. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
